Re: Ex Parte Presentation: CS Docket No. 97-80; CSR-7131-Z

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On April 25, 2007, Stephen Effros of Effros Communications, and Seth A. Davidson of Fleischman and Walsh, both representing Beyond Broadband Technology LLC ("BBT"), met in separate meetings with: Michelle Carey, senior legal advisor to Chairman Martin; Rudy Brioché, legal advisor to Commissioner Adelstein; and Monica Desai, Andrew Long, Brendan Murray, Michael Lance, Steven Broecker, Alison Greenwald Nepelkh, and John Gabrysch of the Media Bureau. Also on April 25, 2007, Mr. Effros met in separate meetings with Chris Robbins, legal advisor to Commissioner Tate; Rick Chessen, legal advisor to Commissioner Copps; and Cristina Chou Pauze, legal advisor to Commissioner McDowell. The purpose of these meetings was to discuss the development of the BBT open-standard downloadable security solution, the comments filed by BBT in support of JetBroadband's pending waiver request, and comments filed by the Consumer Electronics Association in opposition to JetBroadband's waiver request.

In accordance with section 1.1206 of the Commission's rules, an electronic copy of this notice is being submitted for inclusion in the record of the above-referenced proceedings.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Seth A. Davidson" followed by a stylized flourish or initials.

Seth A. Davidson

Counsel for Beyond Broadband Technology LLC
